

Friends Historical Library Dublin, Quaker House, Stocking Lane, Dublin 16

Telephone: (01) 4998006 email: irishquakerhistoricallibrary@gmail.com

LIBRARY OPEN: Thursdays 11.00 a.m. to 1.00 p.m

List of Irish Quaker books available from the Library

Title	Publisher & Date	Cost & post type
Religion in a Changing World by Maurice J Wigham. ‘When we look at religion in this changing world, we see it is one religion and one world’. 8 A5 pages (20 g).		€2.00 A
The Irish Quakers by Maurice J Wigham (2 nd Edition 2003) A history of the Society of Friends in Ireland and an introduction to Quakerism in general. The author, a lifelong Quaker, was a teacher and headmaster of Newtown School Waterford for 17 years. 170 pages with illustrations. (260g)	Historical Committee 1992	€10.00 C
Portlaw by Desmond G Neill A 19 th Century Quaker Enterprise based on a model village. The Malcomson mill village of 1825 preceded the planned villages of Bessbrook and Sion Mills in Ulster and may have influenced the plans for Bournville. Occasional paper No 1. 16 pages. (50g)	Historical Committee 1992	€3.00 A
Transactions of the Central Relief Committee of the Society of Friends during the Famine in Ireland in 1846 and 1847 The Committee published its report in 1852. Republished in 1995 with an index added. The full story of the Committee’s work during the famine years and afterwards. 530 pages. (1.1kg)	Eamon de Burca 1995	€35.00 E
Quaker relief work in Ireland’s Great Hunger by Rob Goodbody One of the seventy seven panels of the Quaker Tapestry depicts the potato famine of 1846-49. This booklet summarizes the work done by the Central Relief Committee and explains the tapestry panel picture. 32 pages illustrated. (80g)	Quaker Tapestry Booklets 1995	€3.50 A
A Suitable Channel by Rob Goodbody Includes the extra material that would not fit inside the Quaker Tapestry booklet. Telling the story of the Quaker Central Relief Committee involvement in famine relief. 99 pages (250g)	Pale Publishing 1995	€9.00 B
A Biographical Dictionary of Irish Quakers by Richard S Harrison 2 nd Edition includes the details of 300 Irish Friends from the 350 years of Quakers in Ireland. Biographical details and anecdotes collected over a thirty year period are presented here in readable form. 123 pages. (370g)	Four Courts Press 2008	€50.00 C
History of the Religious Society of Friends in Lurgan by Arthur G Chapman The first Quaker Meeting in Ireland was established in Lurgan in 1654. Tells of the contribution Friends have made to the district over three and a half centuries. 73 pages illustrated. (170g)	Lurgan Friends Meeting 1997	€6.00 B
Friends and 1798 by Glynn Douglas Quaker witness to non-violence in 18 th Century Ireland. Extracts from contemporary records and personal recollections of members of the Society of Friends of the 1798 uprising. 95 pages illustrated. (240g)	Historical Committee 1998	€10.00 B
James & Mary Ellis by Joan C Johnson Quaker famine relief in Letterfrack. An account of the Ellis response to the appalling destitution found in Co. Galway when, at the age of 56, James bought land and became a resident landlord in 1849. 81 pages illustrated. (300g)	Historical Committee 2000	€11.50 C
The Friendly Guide to Quakerism by Janet Cameron, Simon Lamb, Aidan McCartney & David Morton. A 350 year history of the Society of Friends in 32 colourful pages of well chosen quotations and illustrations taken from the world wide family of Friends. A4 – 32 pages in colour. (190g)	IYM Youth Committee 2002	€4.00 B
The Beginnings of Quakerism in 17th Century Ireland by John M Douglas The address given at the Tercentenary Conference in 1954. It examines the background of the first fifty years of Quakers in Ireland. Occasional Paper No 2 – A5 20 pages. (70g)	Historical Committee 2004	€3.00 A
The Quaker Meeting Houses of Ireland by David M Butler The history and features of about 150 Meeting Houses and 100 known burial grounds used by Quakers in Ireland since they settled their first meetings in 1654. 254 A4 pages with extensive plans and sketches. (1.3kg)	Historical Committee 2004	€25.00 E
100 Years and More —History of Friends in Portadown by Arthur G Chapman Although the Meeting House in Portadown is only 100 years old, Friends have been active in the area for three and a half centuries. This is their story. 71 A5 pages with many photographs. (160g)	Lurgan Friends Meeting 2005	€10.00 B
Victor Bewley’s Memoirs By Fiona Murdoch The life story of a well-known Dublin Friend (1912-1999) as told to his granddaughter, revealing a sensitive man with a quiet determination to help others. The account includes his vision for the family business, work with the Travelling community. 112 A5 pages (200g)	Veritas 2002	€11.00 B
Merchants, Mystics & Philanthropists – By Richard S Harrison 350 years of Cork Quakers and their historic connection with Cork City and surroundings. 235 pages illustrated. (570g)	Cork Monthly Meeting 2006	€20.00 D

Sean Harrington – Pacifist Quaker 1900 -1976 Edited by Charles B Lamb Reminiscences of a war of independence veteran, who joined the IRA and rose to become a Section Commander. Becoming interested in pacifism he discovered Friends and joined the Society in 1943. 36 A5 pages. (90g)	CBL Services, Roscrea	€4.50 A
The Annals of Ballitore – Edited by Mario Corrigan, Michael Kavanagh and Karel Kiely. Being a compilation of Annals of Ballitore by Mary Leadbetter (1758-1826) and Ballitore and its Inhabitants Seventy Years Ago by Betsy Shackleton (1783-1843) 320 pages (820g)	Kildare County Library 2009	€20.00 D
The Richardsons of Bessbrook – By Richard S Harrison. An account of the Ulster linen industry 1845-1921 through three generations of the Richardson family outlining the development of Bessbrook village, involvement in temperance and the life of a Liberal MP. 235 pages (450g)	Original Writing Ltd Dublin 2009	€20.00 D
Coming from the Silence – Edited by Ann Le Mare & Felicity McCartney Quaker peace building initiatives in Northern Ireland 1969-2007. Describes the history and working of four major projects: Quaker House Belfast, Ulster Quaker Service Committee, Quaker Peace Education Project. 185 A5 pages (450g)	William Sessions, York 2009	€10.00 C
Quakers in Lisburn -Four centuries of Work and Witness by Arthur G Chapman Friends arrived in the 1650's and have been active in the area ever since. The rise and disappearance of the outlying Meetings of Lisburn and its Monthly Meeting and its Friends down to the present day. 88 A5 pages (170g)	Ulster Friends Home Mission 2009	€10.00 B
Joseph Williams - Recollections of the Rebellion of 1798. Edited by Jennifer Keogh. Eye-witness account of life in Wexford by a Quaker miller. 12 A5 pages (25g)	Historical Committee 2011	€3 A
A Jacob Family – Tramore in the 1900s compiled by Philip R Jacob. History of the family from their arrival in Ireland up to 1950. 239 A5 pages (500g)	Jacob Books Dublin	€10 C
A Fortunate Fellow – by Philip R Jacob. The memoirs of an 80 year old life long Irish Friend. 280 A5 pages (430g)	Jacob Books Dublin 2011	€10 C
Them Wild Woods – The transatlantic letters of an Irish Quaker family 1818-1877. Edited by Bill Jackson. Letters of Greeves, O'Brien & Sinton families. 400 pages 200x265 mms (1400g)	Ulster Historical Foundation 2011	€20 F
Dr John Ruddy of Dublin (1698-1775) by Richard S Harrison. Biography of the naturalist, medical man, philosopher and Quaker historian. 271 A5 pages (650g)	Original Writing Ltd Dublin 2011	€20 D
The Goodbodys – The Story of an Irish Quaker Family 1630-1950 by Michael Goodbody. The family's involvement in the industrialisation of Ireland. 532 pages 185 x 255 mm (1600g)	Ashfield Press Dublin 2011	€40 F
Bloomfield: A history 1812-2012 Glynn Douglas, Rob Goodbody, Alice Mauger and John Davey. A history of the Dublin Quaker mental hospital. 288 pages 175 x 245 mm (850g)	Ashfield Press Dublin 2012	€20 D
Quaker life and Practice. A book of the Christian Experience of the Religious Society of Friends in Ireland. 280 pages 143 x 210 mm (400g)	Yearly Meeting Dublin 2012	€10 D
In Search of Bulmer Hobson by Stan Greer. An assessment of his life & the events leading up to the 1916 rising. 54 A5 pages (150g)	Graven Image Press 2014	€10 B
Dublin Quakers (1650-1900) by Richard S. Harrison. A history of Dublin Quakers, their organisation, beliefs and contribution, economic and philanthropic, to the wider public. 164 A5 pages (290 g)	Risteárd Mac Annraoi Cork 2018	€15 C
Quakers: Social conditions in Ireland in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, as illustrated by early Quaker records by Isabel Grubb. 142 A5 pages (230g). First printing of the author's MA thesis.	Risteárd Mac Annraoi Cork 2018	€15 C
Quakers and the Enlightenment: the context of schism in the early 18th century by Julianna Minihan. Occasional papers in Irish Quaker history No. 6. 8 A5 pages (20 g)	Historical Committee 2018	€5 A

Postal Rates (July 2018)

Packet type	A	B	C	D	E	F
Weight	<100g	<250g	<500g	<1.0kg	<1.5kg	<2.0g
Ireland	€3.60	€4.30	€5.80	€9.00	€9.00	€9.00
GB and Europe	€5.00	€6.00	€7.00	€10.00	€13.00	€13.00
Rest of world	€5.00	€6.00	€7.00	€13.00	€20.00	€20.00

CM August 2018