

IYM 2024 Provisional Children's Programme for Saturday 20th July and Sunday 21st July

Saturday Before lunch – at the Quaker Meeting House

Children are dropped off at the Quaker Meeting House by parents between 9.00 and 9.15, giving parents time to make it to the start of the IYM session in the College at 9.30.

9.15 – 9.30 Getting to know each other; finding our Meetings on a map of Ireland

9.30-10.15 Exploring biodiversity in the Cork Quaker Burial Ground

10.15-11.00 Arts & crafts – making rubbings of plants collected from the Burial Ground, making suncatchers.

11.00-11.20 Snack/break

11.20-12.45 Exploring Ubuntu through cooperation games and a group art project

Some play toward the end of the session.

12.45-13.00 Parents pick up their children.

13.00-14.00 Lunch at the College

After lunch – at the College

14.00-14.45 Ubuntu – Caring for the Earth

We are all part of one big community whose home is Earth
Making wallets from juice cartons

14.45-16.00 Preparing for an all-age activity with the adults

16.15-16.30 Children join adults in the plenary session

One or two older children give a summary of the children's programme, then hand over to a leader, who describes the all-age activity.

16.30-17.30 Supervised play until parents pick up their children.

Sunday July 21 – at the Meeting House

Meeting for Worship is 11-12. Children sit in Meeting for the first 10-15 minutes, then go out with the leaders for a last session, sharing impressions of their time together and expressing these through artwork and poetry or other writing.
